CREATIVES. RECORDING ARTISTS. WORSHIP LEADERS.

2019 – 2020

Paula+Angie are National Recording Artists and are a dynamic mother and daughter duo that travel all over the World spreading the Gospel message through song and testimony. The duo was formed in 2013 and over the course of their career they've had a Billboard Top 15 Heat Seekers single ("Soon & Very Soon"), a Billboard Top 25 Gospel Album ("Merged" with fellow label mates, Remain Anchored), spent 21 consecutive weeks on the Inspirational Album Charts ("Where Do We Go"), been considered for 5 GRAMMY® Award nominations and 4 Gospel Music Association Dove Award nominations. Paula Greene and Angie Greene Gray live in North Carolina with their families. Paula sings soprano with Angie on alto—each with her unique style—but the blend, they say, is “truly a God thing.”

Until 2014, Paula+Angie had spent over 15 years as featured soloists with a touring choir and sang 75-100 dates annually. During this time, they were afforded the opportunity to sing with such legendary gospel artists as Jessy Dixon, Lynda Randle, Jason Crabb, Carman, Geron Davis & Kindred Souls, The Hoppers, The Talleys, The Collingsworth Family, The Allen Family, Brian Free & Assurance and Karen Peck & New River, in addition to appearing on INSP-TV annual “Campmeeting” event.

Other notable appearances for the duo include “Babbie’s House” on WATC-57 TV (with host Babbie Mason), Franklin Graham Crusade (background singers for Lynda Randle), Music City Show Cruise (background singers for Lynda Randle), Michael English & The Martins (opening act), Gerald Wolfe’s Hymn Sing, 47th Annual Dove Awards Choir (background singers for Steven Curtis Chapman, w/ Dove Awards Choir), Abraham Productions “Singing in the Sun” and Abraham Productions “Gatlinburg Gathering.”

Paula+Angie recorded their freshman EP with Lamor Records – a fresh arrangement of the Andraé Crouch classic “Soon & Very Soon” and a Gospel/Blues infused version of “God on the Mountain” – which released on March 11, 2016.

The duo recorded a new studio CD on their G2 Music Group label (Angie serves as CEO) and it was recorded at the legendary Daywind Studios in Nashville TN. The CD contains some original music by Angie, wonderful interpretations of several covers and was produced by Angie. The radio single “Where Do We Go” - released on June 19, 2017 and the CD released to all digital retailers on August 4, 2017 and spent 21 consecutive weeks on the Nielsen Soundscan Inspirational Chart. Their latest release – “Merged” – is a joint project with their G2 Music Group label mates, Remain Anchored, and the album debuted on Billboard Top 25 Gospel Album Sales at #23 in April 2019.

Their next radio single from “Merged” will be going for adds at radio in January 2020. The single titled “When God Says Move” was penned by Angie. The duo is also anticipating a Christmas EP release for October 2020.
